

NOTES:

Choose You This Day: A Study In Joshua Spiritual Formation: Part 1—The Mind

Joshua 4:1-24

There are four spiritual formation lessons God takes his people through in chapters 4 and 5.

1. The _____ (4:1-24), which involves the act of building two memorials.
2. The _____ (5:1-9), which involves the act of circumcision.
3. The _____ (5:10-12), which involves the act of observing Passover.
4. The _____ (5:13-15), which involves the act of submitting to Lordship.

Forgetfulness is a common, yet deadly spiritual _____.

- “We tend to _____ what we should remember and we _____ what we should forget.”
- The Bible is full of _____ for us to remember.
- In Joshua 4, God desires the Children of Israel never to _____ what He did for them in crossing the Jordan.
- The responsibility to remember is _____. (Psa. 16:8; Col. 3:2)

Several applications for consideration:

1. Do you have a _____ of God’s activity and faithfulness in your life? Are you telling that _____?
2. Parents, you are the chief _____ of your children.
3. You _____ where your mind _____. (Pro. 23:7; Rom. 12:1-2; Col. 3:2)
4. Believers have a new mind because they have _____ from death to life.

TGBC is a biblically centered, multigenerational church committed to fulfilling Christ’s mandate to make disciples by learning the gospel, loving the gospel, and living the gospel.