

NOTES:

It Will Be Well (Even When It's Not)

2 Kings 4:8-37

Background on the Shunammite woman (vv. 8-10)

Elisha wants to bless the woman (vv. 11-17)

What is well becomes _____ well. (vv. 17-20)

God ordains events and circumstances in our lives that we cannot _____, that are _____ us, that overwhelm us, and that batter and _____ us.

_____ teaches us to seek God who is bigger than we are.

We learn a lot about this mother by the way she responds to this tragedy.

1. She immediately turns to _____.
2. She says something that is utterly _____ and ridiculous, (vv. 23 & 26) "It will be well."
 - But that statement is only absurd apart from the _____ of _____.
3. She _____ of the feet of "man of God." (v. 27)
4. And then she says, "I will not _____ you." (v. 30)

God, not Elisha, _____ the child's life. (vv. 29-35)

Why is it that God allowed the dead to be brought back to life in this case and not others?

- This story stands as a _____ of something greater than this boy being rescued and delivered from _____.
- This is a picture of _____!

Applications

1. Moms, God is _____ so remember, He's in _____ not you. (Rom. 8:28)
2. Moms, God covers you with His _____ in Christ so remember, He's provided all that you need in Him. (Rom. 8:32)
3. Moms, God _____ sin and death so remember, He _____ above all other problems you will ever face. (Rom. 8:35, 37-39)

Moms, when all is not well with your _____, it can be well with your _____.

TGBC is a biblically centered, multigenerational church committed to fulfilling Christ's mandate to make disciples by learning the gospel, loving the gospel, and living the gospel.